1. They cross'd themselves, their stars they blest,
   Knight, minstrel, abbot, squire, and guest.
2. That's my last Duchess painted on the wall,
   Looking as if she were alive.
3. The sea is calm to-night,
   The tide is full, the moon lies fair
   Upon the Straits.
4. The world is charged with the grandeur of God,
   It will flame out, like shining from shook foil.
5. Once out of Nature I shall never take
   My bodily form from any natural thing…
6. There was a Birth, certainly,
   We had evidence and no doubt. I had seen birth and death
   But had thought they were different; this birth was
   Hard and bitter agony for us, like Death, our death.
7. The Press are convinced that he bought a paper every day
   And that his reactions to advertisements were normal in every way.

8. I am not yet born; O fill me
   With strength against those who would freeze my Humanity,…
