EN614 – DRAMA IN CLASSICS-II [VICTORIAN TO MODERN AGE]

Time: 3 hrs Max Marks: 75

SECTION-A (5X2=10)

Answer any FIVE questions in 50 words each:

1. "Nothing will induce me to part with Bunbury, and if you ever get married, which seems to me extremely problematic, you will be very glad to know Bunbury. A man who marries without knowing Bunbury has a very tedious time of it."
2. What attitudes toward marriage do Wilde's characters explore?
3. Which union—Jack's with Gwendolen or Algernon's with Cecily—seems more likely to succeed?
4. Write a note on the growth of Victorian drama.
5. "People like me don't get fat. I've tried to tell you before. We just burn everything up."
6. Describe the relationship between Pegeen and her father Michael James.
7. What is the relevance of playboy in the present times?
8. Write a note on Angry Young Men movement?

SECTION-B (5X5=25)

Answer any Five of the following in about 150 words each:

9. How does Wilde turn around well-known proverbs or epigrams to comment on Victorian attitudes?
10. Examine if the institution of marriage is attacked in Osborne's Look Back in Anger.
11. Sketch the character of Harry in The Family Reunion.
12. Discuss how Synge's uses tragedy and comedy in this play to show how complex human beings are?
13. Manuscripts are used by various characters — diaries, sermons, and a three-volume novel. What function does each have in the play The Importance of Being Earnest?
14. Discuss the features of Victorian theatre?
15. What themes can be explored from the Apple Cart?
16. Sketch the character of Lady Bracknell.

SECTION-C (4X10=40)

Answer any FOUR the following in about 300 words each:

17. Examine how Osborne's Look Back in Anger is a representative play of the Angry Young Men.

18. Explain Shaw's various ideas critically examined in the drama like dominance of Bureaucracy and the truth about Democracy in The Apple Cart.
19. Discuss the "Theory of Regeneration," and its importance to Irish Culture at the beginning of the 20th century. How does The Playboy reflect this theory?
20. What are the themes that could be analyzed from the family Reunion?
21. How does Wilde create and comment on the differences between the social classes in England as represented by Lady Bracknell and the servants in both settings?
22. How does Christy develop from a weakling into hero in The Play Boy of the Western world?
