37. Precis Writing or Note Making:

Short land revenue settlements will take away from the landlords all incentive to improve their land.The zamindars have the best right to land; and even if they had not, it should be given to them, for government ownership of the land is not in the public interest. It is best for the state that the land should be in the hands of the most thrifty class; but no zamindar would clear and cultivate the jungle, of which a third of the company's land is composed,if he had only ten years lease.
